

The Blue Feather

Petal

A Storybird
The Blue Feather

By

Petal

Illustrated by

Rebecca Harris

Published on

September 18, 2016

© Storybird 2016. All rights reserved. Not for resale.

Earl the bird has lost his most beautiful feather. His blue feather.
Earl the bird has lost his friends because he laughed at them.

Earl the bird looked for his blue feather all day and sometimes all night.
Earl the bird looked for his friends all day and sometimes all night.

Earl was very lonely.
He was sad he couldn't find his blue feather.
He was sad he couldn't keep his friends.

The wise Hen said,
“Take a deep breath. Put your wings down. You will find what you are looking for.”
Earl the bird listened carefully.

Earl the bird took deep breaths.
He tried very hard not to laugh at his friends.
He still looked for his blue feather.

One day, Henny the red-legged hen came too close.
Earl and his friends were frightened. Earl flapped his wings and laughed.
Henny heard Earl's laugh. She moved away.

The birds thanked Earl for letting Henny know that she was too close. They thanked him for not laughing at them. Earl put his wings down. It was then that he found his blue feather. It was always on his red wing.

And so Earl found what he was looking for.

The world needs your stories

